

2022 CLI SESSION CONTENT

Month	Topic	Resource Links
February	Reground in the group's purpose and pausing to reflect on how the latest Covid variant was impacting our community and our work	Tulsa CLI Professional Group's-Community Asset Mapping Portal (CAMP): here you can connect with registered members and explore resources shared among the group.
April	How to explain a PDSA to someone who's never used it before. Tips from Hollis McAllister (City Year Tulsa) A review of continuous improvement in action- Katie Wright (CAP Tulsa)	Triangle Solitaire Game https://www.analyticsvidhya.com/blog/2016/11/8-interesting-data-science-games-to-break-the-ice-monday-blues/ https://www.mathsisfun.com/games/ https://medium.com/nightingale/sketching-the-world-an-icebreaker-to-working-with-data-de8df5e0c21a CAMP Link to Resource: Which CLI Tool Should I Use?
June	Julian Himes (ImpactTulsa) walked us through thinking about data more broadly and recognizing that when we measure complex systems, proxies become vital tools. Jim Provenzano (Proven4Strategy Consulting) walked us through four key aspects of helping create an engaging environment for data use.	Jamboard with brainstorming around 4 strategies of engagement